

Hypothetically

What is it in theory?

Lashings of nameless bodies,
Blood everywhere you can see,
Pages of our History.

Living in a world of pain,
Bombing civil people in vain,
Attack, kill and repeat again,
Are you sure you're not insane?

Freedom and peace ridiculed,
Staying alive is difficult,
Torturing an innocent,
Being the war instrument.

Killed in the name of a god,
They were about thousand odd,
Crusades or terrorism,
War is not heroism.

Is destruction a solution?
Let's think about it, with caution
Life is nothing to play with,
The third world war is not a myth.
