

It happens to be her biggest fear
She has to face it another year
She is the only one not acting fake
And of course, it's the one that you break
Now, she is weak in this atmosphere
Her conscience says "Get me out of here!"
Every night she's staying awake
Because of your horrible mistakes

Trying to be strong from the inside
Little girl is alone by her side
Too afraid to talk to her mother
She hopes that someone hears her prayer
Later on, it was hard to decide
"Should I?" And God knows how much she tried
Are you proud of what you've done to her?
Do you think you will feel much stronger?

Little girl disappeared forever
And now you're going to remember
Words can affect a human being
How do you call it? It's bullying
Please, now look around and be smart
Reacting to this can save a heart
This little girl was like a soldier
Today, up there, she's a warrior
